Code Compliance

Clean up has been completed on 1270 N Milton Ct. Bill is in the mail.

1531 N Washington, Todd needs the letter that Joe sent out, to go off.

New Business

Council Member Harper drew a map to show what a 2-mile radius from the elementary school would look like. Mayor Brown was at a meeting and met with 437, they have agreed to pay for one set of the crosswalk lights, either at 89th street or 6th street. Looking towards the end of September before they would be here.

Will be having another turnpike meeting within the next few weeks.

The park committee talked about having an Ice cream social in July for Rainbow Bridge and a spray night in August.

Asking about where to place personalized bricks from the gazebo. 35-40 of them have names. Thought about maybe around the flagpole, in Heritage Park. Both sides of sidewalk going into the gazebo.

Picnic benches inside the shelter house at heritage park are coming to their end of life, thinking about that for the budget.

Suggestion of additional parking down at heritage park. Budget for 2026 asphalt parking lot at heritage park and exercise park. Talk to Connie about budget.

Well up by the Civic Park, it will have to be addressed if it is used for a parking lot at some point. Council Member Trower will send us a form.

Pat Cox has it drawn up enough to be able to submit it to the grant writer. Cover with the budget for this year or next year, or split it 50/50.

Terry Boyes, property by the school, Alley way where shed is located, asked about vacating the alley on the east side of her property and she has been maintaining the area to the west side of her house, thought was to put a fence up and then having the city or school maintain it. Just to tree line for a fence, Todd would need to research if the City have transfer 10 feet on the property to the adjoining landowner. Going to have Todd do a little research and we will get back with her. it.
